Animal School Holiday

Once upon a time, in a small town, there was a unique school. This school was not for children, but for animals! The animals learned about the world, just like children do in their schools. One day, the teacher, a wise old owl named Mr. Hoot, announced, "We will have a holiday tomorrow!" The animals were excited. They loved holidays. The next day, each animal brought something special from their homes. The rabbit brought carrots, the squirrel brought nuts, and the bear brought honey. They all shared their treats and had a wonderful holiday at school. They played games, sang songs, and even danced. At the end of the day, they all agreed that it was the best school holiday ever.
