Spider'S Sports Day

In the future, on a sunny island, lived a sporty spider named Spidey. Spidey loved sports and was always the fastest in races. One day, Spidey decided to organize a sports day for all the island creatures. He invited everyone, from the tiny ants to the big elephants. The day arrived, and the island was buzzing with excitement. The first event was a race. Spidey, being the fastest, won easily. Next was a high jump. Spidey used his web to jump high and won again. The last event was a swimming race. Spidey was scared as spiders don't swim. But he gathered his courage and jumped in. He struggled but didn't give up. In the end, he didn't win the race but won everyone's heart. From that day, Spidey was not just the fastest, but also the bravest spider on the island.
