Super Dino Heroes

In the heart of a lush forest, lived four dinosaur friends: Tricky the Triceratops, Terry the T-Rex, Stevie the Stegosaurus, and Paddy the Pterodactyl. They were not ordinary dinosaurs, they were Super Dino Heroes! Each had a unique superpower. Tricky had super strength, Terry could run super fast, Stevie had a super brain, and Paddy could fly super high. One sunny day, they heard a loud cry for help. A little bird was stuck in a tall tree. The Super Dino Heroes sprang into action. Terry used his super speed to reach the tree quickly. Tricky used his super strength to shake the tree gently. The bird was still scared and wouldn't move. Stevie used his super brain and suggested Paddy to use his super flight. Paddy flew up and gently coaxed the bird to hop onto his back. With a cheer from their forest friends, Paddy flew down safely. The bird thanked the Super Dino Heroes. They smiled, happy to help. They knew their superpowers were meant for good deeds.
